The Villatent Deluxe with sanitary facilities is equipped for a maximum of six people. This tent has a bedroom with a double bed and a bedroom with two bunk beds.
2. It is not allowed to exceed the number of persons signed up or the maximum number allowed. If this happens, the campsite manager may deny you access to your tent. You are then not entitled to any compensation.
3. Contrary to the above provision, we can determine beforehand and in joint consultation with the campsite to examine whether it is possible to add extra persons to the reservation. There may be additional costs involved! Without prior approval from the campsite, it is not permitted to receive new people or have them stay overnight.

3.6. Preferences

When making a reservation on our website, you can specify your preferences in the 'comments' box. Your preferences must be indicated directly when booking. Villatent communicates your preferred choice(s) to the campsite manager. We cannot guarantee that they all be satisfied.

3.7. Options

It is possible to place an option on one of our tents. We point out that this option is not free of obligation. The option is always linked to an end date, before which you have to make a definitive decision about the option.

3.8. Medical essences

1. It is possible that you may have specific medical requirements and/or needs. We call these medical essences. If you indicate that you have medical essences when you place your reservation, we will inform you at the campsite whether it is possible to guarantee the medical essences in your specific case.
2. Medical essences will only be provided after we have given our express consent in writing.
3. You may have to pay a supplementary charge for medical essences after arriving at your destination. We will inform you about this to the best of our knowledge.

4. Payment

4.1. Deposit and final payment

When you are making a booking, we will ask for a deposit payment of 30% of the total amount. The tourist tax may differ per region and per campsite. Any additional costs must be paid at the campsite itself.

4.4. Late payment

If the tenant does not pay on time, he or she will be sent a number of reminders. If the payment is not made within the set period(s), we reserve the right to hand over the claim to the bailiff. Both judicial and extrajudicial charges including statutory interest shall be borne by the tenant. In case of late payment, we reserve the right to cancel the booking. The tenant is then liable for any extra costs incurred such as airline tickets, car hire, boat and bus trips and the like.

7. Facilities

7.1. Charges

On our website we describe which facilities are available at all campsites. Although no costs are mentioned for any of the facilities, some of them may be subject to additional charges. We are not liable for unexpected surcharges for the use of facilities or services charged locally.

7.2. Opening hours

We pay utmost attention to make sure that as much information as possible about all the facilities and their opening hours are known to us. Nevertheless, we cannot guarantee that all facilities will always be open. The opening hours of certain facilities may depend on the type of season. Especially during low season it can occur that certain facilities are closed.

In addition, it can often be the case that certain facilities are leased to third parties, which is why we and/or the campsite manager cannot exercise imperative influence on the specific opening hours. Examples include facilities such as restaurants, swimming pools or other listed facilities in the area.

8. Cancel or change your reservation

8.1. When the tenant cancels the reservation

It may happen that you need to cancel your holiday due to unforeseen circumstances. A cancellation must always be communicated to us by e-mail or telephone. It is important to know that cancelling entails extra charges in many cases.

Cancellation insurance

As head booker you are responsible for taking out cancellation insurance in a timely fashion, as well as settling with your insurer. We will provide all reservation details if your insurer so requests.

Cancellation in accordance with the general conditions

1. In the event that you have not taken out cancellation insurance, or if the reason for cancellation is not covered by the insurance conditions of your insurance company, then the reservation will be canceled in accordance with these general terms and conditions.
2. This means that - in addition to the due reservation costs and any insurance premium, you will be charged the following:
 - a. in case of cancellation up to 50 days before the day of arrival: the amount of the deposit as shown on the booking confirmation;
 - b. in case of cancellation from the 50th day (inclusive) until the 28th day before the day of arrival: 75% of the travel sum;
 - c. cancellation from the 28th day (inclusive) until the day of arrival or later: 100% of the travel sum.

8.2. When Villatent cancels the reservation

Force majeure or unforeseen circumstances

By force majeure or unforeseen circumstances we mean a situation prior to arrival that causes the accommodation to be in such a state that it is no longer suitable for renting. Examples of this are a natural disaster such as a forest fire or flooding, a double reservation and so on.

In the situation described above we can proceed to canceling the reservation. We will inform you of this in writing or by telephone, including the reasons of cancellation. We will then provide you with a suitable and equal offer without additional costs. This offer depends on:

- The location
- Category of accommodation
- The available facilities
- Any preferences that have been specified to us at the booking.

If we are unable to offer you a suitable alternative offer or if you do not agree with the alternative that we offer, we will then proceed to refund the deposit or the total amount of the reservation that had already been paid.

In the situation described above we cannot be held liable for any other services that you reserved and/or have paid for. This includes air tickets, car hire, boat and bus trips and the like.

8.3. Changes in the reservation

1. After confirming the reservation it is generally possible to make changes to the reservation up to 7 days before arrival. These could include changes such as the number of people or booking optional facilities.
2. If you want to implement (a) change(s) in one of the situations described below, the lead booker must communicate this with our contact center.

Changing travel companion(s)

1. In case one of the fellow travelers can no longer join, his or her place can be transferred to another person.
2. It is only possible to add another traveler up to the maximum number of persons allowed.

Changing main booker and/or transferring the reservation

1. When the main booker can no longer attend, his or her place may be transferred to someone else within the reservation provided that this person is at least 18 years old.
2. The reservation can also be transferred to another family, but only if the camping site allows for this. Transferring a reservation must always be communicated to the Villatent contact center.
3. In a situation described at point 2, it may happen that the campsite in question considers the change a cancellation. In such a case we are bound to levy cancellation charges.

Re-reservation

1. With our re-reservation guarantee you can change your holiday up to 2 weeks before arriving. The rules with regard to re-reservation are described below:
 - You can rebook free of charge without any reason given;
 - You can rebook up to 2 weeks before the arrival date;
 - The guarantee for re-reservation applies to the entire reservation;
 - Re-reservation is only possible when the vacation is available in the Villatent reservation system at the moment of rebooking;

 - Rebooking can only be done over the phone;

9. Complaints

Together with our campsites we do everything we can to make sure you will have a perfect glamping holiday throughout the entire customer journey. But if you still have a complaint or problem, then we will do everything we can to find a solution together. In this, we are making a distinction between complaints before, during and after the vacation. Within this distinction, the following schemes are in place:

9.1. Complaints before the vacation

If you have a complaint before you go on holiday, you can contact our contact center. We will then always try to find a solution together with you.

9.2. Complaints during the vacation

Complaints during the holiday must be reported immediately (or as soon as possible) at the camping reception that acts on behalf of Villatent. If the complaint has not been resolved on the spot, you can have a complaints report drawn up together with the campsite reception and contact our contact center immediately (during working days or as soon as possible). If the complaint has not yet been resolved to your satisfaction, you can submit the complaint report by e-mail or via the contact form at www.villatent.com.

9.3. Complaints after the travel

A complaint that has not been resolved according to your wishes and to your satisfaction (despite your report during the holiday) must be submitted in writing to Villatent t.a.v 'Aftersales Villatent' within 1 month after the end of the trip. This can be done by letter, by e-mail to info@villatent.nl, or through the contact form on www.villatent.com. Do you have a copy of complaints report? Send it to us! We will give a full response no later than 1 month after receiving the complaint.

9.4. Choice of law

10. Dutch law applies to agreements that have been concluded on the basis of these terms and conditions; they can be amended or supplemented, unless other law applies by virtue of mandatory rules.

10. Liability

10.1. Injury and goods

We are not liable for any damage, loss and/or theft of goods, or injuries sustained by the tenant or co-tenants, regardless of the cause.

10.2. Environmental factors

In addition, we are not liable for environmental factors such as noise, traffic disruption, stand, water and insect nuisance and weather conditions in any capacity whatsoever.

10.3. Damage to the accommodation and/or inventory

The tenant is liable for any damage to the tent and/or inventory resulting from the tenant's stay. Any damages must be reported to the campsite owner, who will determine which steps should be taken. If the damage is not reported, we are authorized to hold the tenant liable for the damage suffered and claim the liability or travel insurance from the tenant.

10.4. Violating camping rules

The tenant and his guests must adhere to the rules that apply at the campsite. This also applies to receiving visitors. We are not liable if the tenant has to leave the campsite due to causing nuisances and/or hindrance, after being warned by the campsite manager.

10.5. Force Majeure

We are not liable for reimbursing the travel sum in case of force majeure, such as extreme weather conditions, a forest fire or earthquake, which results in the tenant being forced to leave the accommodation.

10.6. Inaccuracies or incompleteness

We pay utmost attention to keeping our website updated about all information and data as reliable and actual as possible. Nevertheless, we cannot exclude the possibility that inaccuracies and omissions occur. We are not liable for apparent errors and inaccuracies. As soon as we notice a mistake or inaccuracy, we will of course correct it immediately (or as soon as possible).
